

ACCESS

assisting. improving. empowering.

VICTIMS OF CRIME ACT (VOCA) PROGRAM

24 hour Crisis Line (833)-STAND-4U (782-6348)

The Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) program at the ACCESS Community Health and Research Center provides services and assistance to more than 2,500 victims of crime since 2007.

The program serves Southeast Michigan counties including Wayne, Macomb and Oakland counties.

The program assists clients with mental health recovery and justice by providing counseling, psychiatric services, case management, and legal advocacy.

Program Goals

Improve health

Physical health

Assist with securing a safe living environment

Provide education

Assist with clothes, food and transportation

Who Qualifies for VOCA?

- Survivors of domestic violence
- Survivors of child and sexual abuse
- Survivors of hate crimes
- Survivors of sexual assault
- Survivors of violent crimes
- Survivors of robbery, burglary and theft
- Survivors of assault
- Homicide survivors and family members

Program Services

- Crisis intervention
- Counseling (individual, family, and group therapy)
- Psychiatric services
- Case management
- Legal support and advocacy
- Community education on victimization issues
- Parent skills trainings
- Referral and follow up
- Referral for medical services

Program Locations

6450 Maple St.
Dearborn, MI 48126
(313)216-2202

18900 Joy Rd.
Detroit, MI 48228
(313) 739-6661

4301 East 14 Mile Road
Sterling Heights, MI 48310
(586) 722-6036